estangible@gmail.com

Christofer Rosas is a guitarist and music educator who earned his Bachelor's degree in Music with a concentration in Performance from Universidad San Ignacio de Loyola (USIL) in Lima, Peru. He is currently pursuing a Master's degree in Music Pedagogy, focusing on comprehensive training and artistic development in music education.

He is the main guitar player of the legendary traditional venue "Brisas del Titicaca" one of the most important cultural spaces in Peru, covering styles from the coast to Andes and Amazon.

Deeply connected to Peruvian music, he has explored a wide range of styles, from traditional rhythms to tropical genres, blending these influences into his artistic and educational work. His teaching approach emphasizes active learning methodologies that promote creativity, self-expression, and the joy of making music
